Third Sunday
after Epiphany
January 26, 2025

Today's lessons:

Nehemiah 8:1-3, 5-6, 8-10 The people of Israel have returned from exile and started to rebuild their country. Now the priest Ezra and the governor Nehemiah lead them in rebuilding their faith, too.

Psalms 19 God has given a marvellous order to the universe, and with the Law he has also given a perfect order to his people.

1 Corinthians 12:12-31a The apostle Paul uses the image of the human body to illustrate that the members of the Church, Jesus Christ's body, can live only, when all are working together.

Luke 4:14-21 When visiting his hometown Nazareth, Jesus serves as lesson reader in the synagogue. And he explains to the people that what he reads is really written about him.

Agnus Day

by James Wetzelstein

I THINK THIS WHOLE "BODY PARTS" IDEA IS COOL.

www.agnusday.org

YEAH - EVERYONE PLAYS A PART & EVERY PART IS NECESSARY.

EXCEPT FOR THE APPENDIX.

I WONDER WHO'S THE APPENDIX?

1 CORINTHIANS 12:12-31

The Scroll of the Prophet

Can you read this Isaiah-Scroll? (You might need to shift some of the letters around...)
The coming of the Messiah means:

hopo got drow et enso

plesart cat veeh sieoet

digh nist bloteht

toop gets perred leseh fe

Declaring the Glory of God

This verse from Psalm 19 is a good prayer for all who undertake to talk about God, but only if your first put the letter tiles in the right order:

P	T	A	B	M	Y	D	T	H	L	E	I	U	R	S	H	A	N
B	E	D	I	T	A	T	I	O	N	A	C	C	E	S	O	F	I	G	H	T

Moved to Tears

What reading material is causing this reaction in today's Old Testament lesson?
Was it called

'BELOW THE FAT HOOK' ?

Or was it

Corporate Cooperation

Can't see the wood for the trees – or should we say, the body for the members?!

Once you have found all the words from today's Epistle lesson, in the remaining letters you will see clearer how it all comes together!
