

Jesus passed through their midst ...

The synagogue in Nazareth turns out to be a tight spot for Jesus. That's something that can happen when you deliver God's word as one of his prophets. That shouldn't deter you – just make sure you have an escape route:

... and went on his way.

MY! OIL ON A BAY.

Or do you have to change the order of the letter and this is really Jeremiah's objection to God's will:

Today's lessons:

- Jeremiah 1:4-10      God makes Jeremiah a prophet, in spite of his protest that he is too young for such a difficult and dangerous job. From now on, Jeremiah will bring God's words to Israel and to the surrounding nations, words of judgement and promises as well.
- Psalm 71:1-6      God who has given us our life will also protect our life and always have an open ear for our problems.
- 1 Corinthians 13:1-13      The Corinthians are proud of the gifts they have. But the apostle Paul makes it clear to them that none of that counts if the gifts are not embedded in love.
- Luke 4:21-30      The pride that the people of Nazareth feel when they hear one of their own speaking like a real rabbi turns into rage against Jesus, when he doesn't fulfill their demand for miracles.

Protection for Life

No health check, no rate increase ever.
But as Psalm 71 reminds us:
God covers us !

Still not complete

The Corinthians might be proud of all their spiritual accomplishment —
the apostle Paul reminds them in his letter that in this life we will never be perfect:
